My Happy Home

Pre-reading

- Name your family members who live in your home.
- Whom do you like the most?

"My name is Bano. I live in a small house. I call it a 'Happy Home'. I have one elder sister and a brother who is younger to me. My parents take good care of us. My grandparents also live with us. We all feel very happy with each other. Our uncles, aunts and cousins come and meet us. We also go and visit them on the weekends or during vacation. It is all fun.

My house has three rooms, a kitchen and a family room. There is a small garden in front of the house. I love to water the plants in the evening. I also keep a white kitten as a pet. I call it 'kitty'.

While-reading

- Do you have a pet?
- What is its name?

My grandfather tells me that a happy family home supports children and helps them to grow in their abilities and skills. It is also very important to listen to our parents and grandparents when they tell us important things. This is what we should do and a few things we should never do as family rules.

Students need to be told to wash hands after handling their pets. They may be encouraged to adopt healthy habits with sense of responsibility.

Kindness to Children

Pre-reading

- Have you ever read about the kindness of the Rasool ﷺ towards children?
- Do you know that the Rasool ﷺ is a role model for all of us?

Hazrat Muhammad ﷺ is the last Rasool ﷺ. He ﷺ is a blessing for mankind. His life is a perfect example for everyone. His kindness to children is well known. The children also loved him very much.

Hazrat Muhammad ﷺ loved children. He ﷺ taught us how to treat them well and express our love and joy for them. A companion quoted Hazrat Anas رضي الله تعالى عنه as saying, "I have never seen anyone act more kindly towards children than Allah's Rasool".

Once he ﷺ was giving the Friday sermon and he ﷺ saw his grand children Hazrat Imam Hassan رضي الله تعالى عنه and Hazrat Imam Hussain رضي الله تعالى عنه coming towards him. Their shirts were too long and they fell. He ﷺ got up and rushed to pick them up.

When anyone brought the first fruit of the season, he ﷺ would give it to the youngest child present there.

Whenever he ﷺ came back from journey, he ﷺ would let the children ride with him.

His love and kindness was not confined to Muslim children only. Even in a battle, he ﷺ had ordered not to kill women and children.

He ﷺ forgave the little mistakes the children made. He ﷺ played with them, gave them rides on his camel and gave them dates. The examples from the life of the Rasool ﷺ are a guidance for all of us.

Post-reading

- Do you know any other qualities of the Rasool ﷺ?
- Why should every child be treated with love?

Road Safety Rules

Pre-reading

- What do you see on the roads early in the morning?
- How do you travel to school?

Steps for Road Safety

All human activities start in the morning. People rush to their work places. Children are in a hurry to reach their schools. Therefore, we have to be very careful and watch around to be safe.

As a child, you should know how to cross a road. It will keep you safe. There are three important steps to follow:

Step 1: Stand on the side of the road and look to your right.

Step 2: Look to your left.

Step 3: Look to your right again and cross the road from the zebra crossing.

Follow the traffic signal and cross the road when the light turns green, and stop when it is red.

Given below are a few instructions that you always need to follow:

ALWAYS

- Stop, look and cross the road.
- Walk on the footpath.
- Use the lane for your cycle and wear a helmet.
- Make the queue to get on your van / bus.
- Keep sitting till the bus/van stops.

While-reading

Why are the black and white lines for crossing the road called zebra crossing?

Never

- Do not rush or run on the road.
- Do not cross the road at turnings or bends.
- Do not push anyone. Wait for your turn to ride the bus or get down.
- Do not get down from a moving bus / van.

Roads are made to help us go from one place to another. People, cycles, motorcycles, cars, trucks and other heavy vehicles use roads day and night. After school, we find children running carelessly to cross the roads. It may cause accidents. In villages, animals come out and block the roads. It is, therefore, very important for everyone to follow rules so that we are safe.

While-reading

Who runs carelessly on roads after school?

We see traffic police controlling hundreds of vehicles on the roads. It is our duty also to help him by obeying the traffic rules. It is very sad that many people get hurt in accidents. If we follow traffic rules and wait for our turn, there will be no loss. This will help us to become good citizens.

Post-reading

- What are your duties on the road while travelling to school?
- How will you cross the road if there are no traffic signals?

Encourage discussion on police as a profession. Ask students questions about the duties of the policemen on the road.

Answer these questions:

What are the rules to cross a road?

---

---

---

---

What will happen if we jump from a moving bus or a van?

---

---

---

---

How can we guide people to stop at the red light?

---
